ESME e.V.

English-Speaking Music Ensembles (ESME) e.V.

ESME e.V. is a non-profit organization dedicated to establishing and promoting English-speaking music ensembles in Munich, Germany. We now have more than 100 members from all over the world rehearsing and performing in three ensembles: an orchestra, a choir and a big band.

As you will find out this evening, our music is as diverse as we are – we perform everything from Beethoven to the Beatles.

If you are looking for an enjoyable way to meet new people and make music at the same time, come along and find out more. Contact us at info@esme-ev.de or visit www.esme-ev.de.

ESME e.V. is actively looking for sponsors to support our vision and growth.

Please contact Jonathan Harclerode at jonathan@esme-ev.de if you are interested.

Donations are always welcome. We issue donation receipts for tax purposes.

Please contact Laura Morris at laura@esme-ev.de for details.

Andreas Partilla, Orchestra Conductor

Andreas has studied conducting with Professor Bruno Weil at the University of Music and Performing Arts in Munich since 2008. He was a coach for two productions of Mozart's operas Così fan tutte and Don Giovanni at Schloss Weikersheim as well as assistant conductor and tutor for productions of Orff's The Wise Woman, Die Bernauerin and Carmina Burana at the Carl Orff Festival in Andechs in both 2012 and 2013. Andreas took over from Daniel Stratievsky as conductor of the ESME orchestra in September 2013. Since November 2013 he has been coach and assistant at the Kammeroper München and will be taking a position as solo repetiteur at the Staatstheater am Gärtnerplatz for the 2014/15 season.

Eric Weddle, Singers Conductor

This is Eric's fourth season conducting the ESME Singers and he has thoroughly enjoyed watching them grow in both size and ability. Eric has been involved in music for most of his life – from his high school marching band, university jazz band, university choir, musical theatre and barbershop quartets, to teaching general music and directing school choirs for the last fifteen years. He holds masters degrees in Music Education and Instructional Technology and currently resides and teaches in Garmisch-Partenkirchen. Eric would like to thank his family for their patience and support and ESME e.V. for this wonderful opportunity.

Joseph Noelliste, Big Band Conductor

Joseph is an accomplished conductor, composer, and performer hailing originally from Jamaica. He studied under Dr. Jean Louis Hagenauer and has a diploma from the Royal School of Music in London. He has also regularly performed with Grammy-award winning vocalist Silvia McNair. Joseph moved to Munich in 2013 with his wife, Erin, who is completing her doctoral studies. At the end of this season, they are moving to Texas where Joseph will start his PhD in Church Music at Baylor University.

Elmar Eggert, Trumpet Soloist

A native of Munich, Elmar studied trumpet with Leo Kappelmeier and Frank Uttenreuther. He has also attended lessons with Maurice André, Guy Touvron and Wynton Marsalis. Elmar became involved in jazz, playing with the Passau-based Big Band Bavaria and the Irish National Radio RTÉ Big Band. From 2010 to 2012, he was Principal Trumpet with Vienna-based symphony orchestra concentus 21 and played with the Vienna Russian Wind Orchestra and the Wiener Konzertverein. Tonight, he will be playing a Selmer G trumpet once owned by French trumpet virtuoso Maurice André.

José Antonio Casas, Clarinet Soloist

José took his first clarinet lesson at the age of nine at the Conservatorio de Música del Liceo in Barcelona (where Rafael Grimal Olmos introduced him to the clarinet). He studied Telecommunications Engineering at the Technical University of Catalonia and was active in their orchestra for more than ten years. Two years ago, his job as an electronic engineer brought him to Munich. José enjoys playing the clarinet in the ESME orchestra and Stadtkapelle in Germering.
